THINGS CHILDREN SAY
THINGS CHILDREN SAY

In August 2018, I messaged the President to let him know he's mentioned in my book.

HERE IS THE WHITE HOUSE REPLY
HERE IS THE WHITE HOUSE REPLY

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 19, 2018

Thank you for contacting the White House. We are carefully reviewing your message.

President Donald J. Trump believes the strength of our country lies in the spirit of the American people and their willingness to stay informed and get involved. President Trump appreciates you taking the time to reach out.

Sincerely,

The Office of Presidential Correspondence

"Ronald Reagan used seldom Let's Make America Great. Close, but not the same. Let's - apostrophe S. You don't want the apostrophe. It's too complicated. It doesn't work. But Ronald Reagan was good. He said let's make - but he didn't use it. He used it a little bit. We seriously use it, right?"

The President of the USA

"Look what I can do!"

Any kid on the planet screaming for attention.

"I hope they now take a look at the oranges... the oranges of the investigation. The beginnings of that investigation. You look at the orange of the investigation; where it started, how it started, who started it, whether it's McCabe or Comey or a lot of them.

Where does it go? How high up in the White House did it go? You will all get Pulitzer Prizes, OK? You can all get Pulitzer Prizes."

The President of the USA

"I'm this many."

Chelsea holding up 5-fingers when asked: How old are you?

"It's 400-page report, right? We could give them 800 pages, and it wouldn't be enough."

The President of the USA

"4"

Timmy a 5-year old answering the question: What's 2 + 2?

"I always say, they say the elite.

They're the elite. I'm not.

Well, I have a better education than them.

I'm smarter than them.

I went to the best schools, they didn't.

Much more beautiful house, much more beautiful apartment, much more beautiful everything and I'm president and they're not."

The President of the USA

"C'mon Elsa!

Get it together."

PROBABLY ~~FAKE~~
PROBABLY ~~FAKE~~

Reading is ~~hard~~ fun!
Reading is ~~hard~~ fun!

*"You'd be doing wind, windmills. 'Wind.'
And if it doesn't — if it doesn't blow
you can forget about television for that night.
Darling I want to watch television.
I'm sorry, the wind isn't blowing.
I know a lot about wind. I know a lot about wind."*

The President of the USA

"He doesn't have any friends, does he?"

A 3-year old boy after watching Nick Jonas sing on TV.

"Maybe we should just take our victory and say NO, we've got a lot of country to run."

The President of the USA

*"Why do my little ball things hurt when I squeeze them?
They're not even attached to my body."*

A 5-year old boy.

warning

Consuming too much POLITICS may lead to an incurable psychosis.

Why is this warning at the end of this page?

Because it's already, too late.

JUST ASK GARY.

WHO IS LINDSAY WINCHERAUK?

Lindsay Wincherauk is a fearless writer. He has published two books and has had more than eighteen OPEs appear in major commuter newspapers. Lindsay wasn't born with a silver spoon in his mouth. His father (who wasn't his father) worked as a mechanic. His mother (who wasn't his mother) worked as an excellent chef in a diner. In fact, his birth was in a secret place where | society deemed | unfit mothers were sent to give birth in isolation — shading families from shame. If the babies survived being born, usually, they were sold to wealthy Americans or adopted out to farm families.

Lindsay's life began with a lie.

Despite Lindsay's perilous beginnings, starting with deception, Lindsay knew no better and went through life excelling at things, usually in two-year stints. Be that athletics (hall of fame, record holding, one-eyed quarterback), scholastically, career-wise (generating more than $70 million in revenue for one company), socially, + without question: creatively!

Lindsay's challenging beginning instilled in Lindsay heaping doses of compassion and empathy. Lindsay's life starting out as a lie gave him a keen sense to spot BS from miles away. It also provided him with a dry sense of humour and an understanding those born with silver spoons in their mouths will never be self-aware enough to understand (or admit) their good fortune.

During Lindsay's work career, he was well-liked by all coworkers. Lindsay was also well respected by his diverse collection of clients, developing several fantastic friendships, primarily because Lindsay is known for his unflinching integrity and ability to hold conversations on most topics.

Lindsay's life mantra is:

The most valuable part of life is the fabulous people we meet during our journeys. If you treat people with respect (leaving judgment at the door), and more importantly, by opening doors for those less fortunate or who can't speak up for themselves, you are living a good, compassionate life. Making money at all costs is not the only thing mattering. Life can be difficult + devastatingly unfair.

Lindsay believes sharing vulnerability is what makes us human. Lindsay will never shy away from being honest about his pain.

Lindsay also believes we must stand up for ourselves, + more importantly, for those who are too burdened by the injustices of life, they can't find the strength to stand up for themselves.

SOME THINGS LINDSAY IS MOST PROUD OF ARE WHEN:

- A sixty-year-old employee of his, who had entered a point of life where life had become more struggle than joy (it happens to all of us as we age), said to Lindsay, "I must thank you. I've listened to how you treat people, + by listening, I've learned so much about compassion and patience. Thank you. I consider you a great friend."
- Another employee who was struggling with addiction thanked Lindsay for his kindness, presenting Lindsay with a Christmas card from him and his girlfriend. Tucked inside the card: lottery tickets.

LINDSAY WINCHERAUK, compassionate, empathetic, well-read, kind, blessed with unflinching integrity, humour in balance, loved by coworkers + friends alike.

Lindsay will always stick up for the underdog. Lindsay understands there are countless older people suffering job loss because COVID gave some companies an opportunity to – Lindsay thinks it is essential to draw attention to this life-threatening issue by being the voice for those too broken to speak up for themselves.

Lindsay is currently pitching four manuscripts to publishers and literary agencies. One of the manuscripts (he can't talk about) will blow the roof off the predatory practices of – Lindsay is writing relentlessly and is also pitching OPEDs and short stories, fiction, + non to literary magazines around the globe.

Lindsay has appeared on Breakfast Television, radio programs in Montreal, + several others in the Vancouver area. Lindsay has also been a featured guest on CKNW + CBC, both on several occasions. And Lindsay was a vital witness of a Hate Crime. This led to the first Hate Crime conviction in Canadian legal history, resulting in him being a speaker at an Enough is Enough Rally (anti-violence rally) with dignitaries, politicians, law enforcement, and community leaders in front of a crowd of approximately five thousand.

Lindsay was the #1 MIXED-TAPE DJ at the UNIVERSITY OF SASKATCHEWAN for most of the nineteen-eighties, a fact bringing him joy.

Lindsay resides in Vancouver.
